Obituary

Clarence Fugett, Jr. was born November 28, 1927 to Clarence Fugett and Gussie Mae Fugett in Waurika, Oklahoma. He was seventh of fifteen children.

Clarence attended school in Waurika, Oklahoma and after graduation, he attended Langston University. He was enlisted into the military where he served in the United States Army. He was employed at Tinkerfield Air Force Base for 37 years.

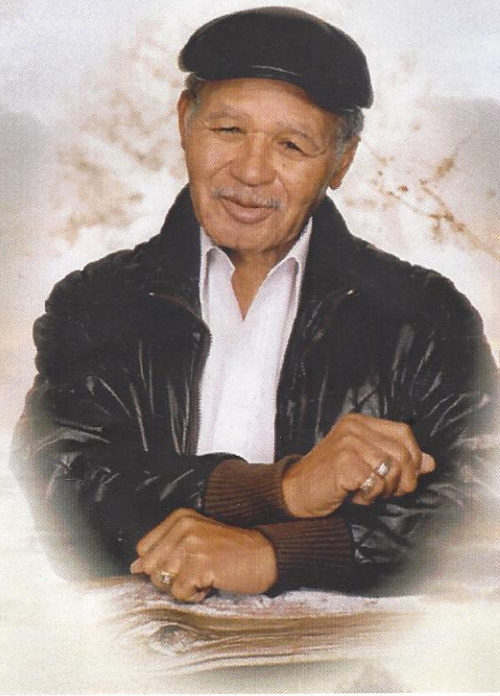

On September 25, 1954, Clarence Fugett and Beatrice Vickers were married and to this union was born one child, Sabrina Kay, but he made an incredible difference in the lives of many others. He kept his feet planted firmly so that his "children" had room to soar.

He was raised in a Christian family, and as an adult, he attended Greater Cleaves Memorial C.M.E. Church where he devoted his time, service and life unselfishly. He served as the Sunday School Superintendent where he received service award for his dedication in 1988, and in 1999, he received the CMMF District Living Legend Award; he served on the Steward Board, Benevolence Committee, served in the capacity of Building Manager, Vacation Bible School Director, and he sang in the Choir. It was said "that when you entered the church you could often hear Clarence before you ever saw him."

Clarence was preceded in death by his wife, Beatrice; both parents, Daddy Coke and Gussie Mae; two brothers,

Lee Otis Gipson and James Fugett; three sisters, Ethel, Carrie Mae and Dorothy.

Clarence departed this life on Friday, June 1, 2012. He leaves to cherish his memory, his daughter, Sabrina Harris (Denny); his sisters, Pearlyne Laurence, Lois Helen Phelps, Maurice Crawford, Verna Williams, Joyce Ricks; his brothers, Michael Fugett, Paul Fugett, Gerald Fugett and Coy Fugett; his sister-in-law, Stella Vickers; grandchildren, Stanley Burdine, Jr. (Nicole), Denisha Harris (DeShanae), Denny Harris, Jr.; great grandchildren, Kierra, Shatory, Akacia, Jayden, De'Shanae and Cayley; many nephews, nieces, and a host of relatives and friends.
