A Life Well Lived

Jacqueline (Diane) Phillips who was affectionately called "Diane" age 66 of Dallas, Texas went home to be with her Lord and Savior with her mother by her side on Friday, September 29, 2017.

Diane accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at a young age. She was a member of Meadow View Church of Christ.

Diane was born on February 26, 1951 to the late Clarence Don Eikner and Verna Rae (Fugett) Eikner of Gainesville, Texas. She was previously married to Roy Phillips and Jim Barry. Diane graduated from South Oak Cliff High School in 1969, it was during this time she developed an affinity for playing the piano and dance (of course she was a ballerina-diva). Diane received her Cosmetology license from Irving Academy for Skin and Hair, which prepared her for her true passion of making others feel and look beautiful. She truly had a gift and will be missed by her many faithful clients.

Diane had a natural zeal for life, a passion for her family, an extremely big and giving heart, and was always impeccably dressed (never had a bad day diva). Under no circumstances did she make light of her past issues or her triumph over them. She often stated through her many trials she could always depend on her All Mighty God and her faithful mother. Her mother remained her anchor as she fought daily not to succumb to her illness. So no more fighting for breath, no more being shackled by oxygen tanks, fly free beautiful lady, fly free!

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

THE FINAL FLIGHT "I'M FREE"

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
 I'm following the path God laid for me.
 I took his hand when I heard his call,
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I've found that peace at the close of the day.
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My Life's been full, I savoured much,
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Acknowledgments

Because you cared, you came to share beautiful flowers, and words of prayers. Because you cared enough to do, words of comfort on cards came too. Because you cared, we were not alone. Because you cared, we're praying too, for God's richest blessing for each of you.
